Requirements and recommendations

1. All members of crew (including the skipper) shall be listed in this declaration unless they are leaving the ship permanently in the first container port of call.
2. The persons listed in column 2 on the front of this declaration shall declare the effects they are carrying by entering them in the space provided.
3. Where quantities (no. of pieces) are declared they must be exact; amounts in other units of measurement may be estimates.
4. The goods shall only be used by the persons listed in this declaration, and used on board only. However, persons listed in this declaration and going on shore leave, or leaving the ship temporarily for a maximum of three days, may use up to 5 cigars or 20 cigarettes or 50 grams of smoking tobacco ashore. In all other cases dutiable goods may only be taken off board, or used on board for other purposes, against payment of the import duties.
5. As soon as the ship has stayed in one port for a total of four weeks but not later than two months after arriving at the first German port, dutiable goods may no longer be used duty-free. Any dutiable goods remaining after that period shall then be declared to the customs office responsible for the ship's berth so that import duties may be levied where appropriate.
6. The skipper shall keep the Crew's Effects Declaration on board and available for customs controls until the ship is leaving the German territorial waters.

Notice in accordance with Section 4 (3) of the Federal Data Protection Act

You are obliged to give the details listed above, in particular pursuant to Article 59(1) of Regulation (EEC) No 2913/92 (Customs Code) and the first sentence of Section 21 (2) of the German Turnover Tax Act.
